I. Policy Intelligence and Education News

- Congress is in recess until after the election – The Senate closed up two weeks ahead of its plan, and like the House is now in recess until after the November midterm election. Upon its return, the congressional agenda will include finalizing the fiscal year (FY) 2019 appropriations for the remaining 7 of the 12 government-funding bills that are operating on an extension of FY 2018 funding that expires on December 7. The full-year funding bill for the Departments of Labor-HHS-Education has already been signed into law, along with the Defense, Energy-Water, Legislative Branch, and Military Construction-VA funding bills. Congress still needs to complete action on the following appropriations bills:
 - (in conference together as an omnibus funding bill, aka Minibus #3): Agriculture, Financial Services, Interior, Transportation-HUD – Conferees have met but there is no resolution. We've heard rumors that Congress might split this omnibus into two smaller packages.
 - Remaining bills: Homeland Security, Commerce-Justice-Science, and State-Foreign Operations – Neither the House nor the Senate has considered any of these bills on the floor yet. The Homeland Security bills approved by the House and Senate Appropriations Committees contain differing amounts for a southern border wall, but both are far below the $25 billion that the Administration originally suggested and that some House Republicans support. On Friday, House Majority Leader Kevin McCarthy (R-CA) introduced a standalone border and immigration bill to provide a total of $23.4 billion over seven years for a wall, with $5.5 billion provided in the coming year. Debate on immigration policy and funding for the wall promises to be very contentious and could derail progress on at least this one bill.
- New director of Office of Special Education Programs at ED – The Department of Education has announced that next month, Laurie VanderPloeg will become the director of the Office of Special Education Programs. She comes from Secretary DeVos's state of Michigan, where VanderPloeg has a long career as a special education teacher and administrator.

II. CEF information

- CEF Job board – Don't forget to check the members page of the CEF website for postings of jobs, including the newest one:
 - National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS) - Director of Policy & Advocacy
- Reminder: nominations to run for CEF's 2019 Board – If you are interested in serving on CEF's Board next year, please email your nomination form by November 15 to Claire Shanklin at Shanklin@CEF.org. The explanatory memo and nomination form are attached (the Update on October 4 lays out the process and specifics in detail).

- Reminder: gala and legislative conference survey – Thank you to the many who have already filled out our survey on this year’s gala and legislative conference. We appreciate the input and encourage everyone to take a few moments to provide helpful feedback. You can find the brief, anonymous survey here.
- Photos and videos from gala and legislative conference on CEF website – Check out the photos from CEF’s legislative conference and gala, as well as the video messages that Senator Tammy Baldwin (D-WI) and Senator Charles Schumer (D-NY) shared with the gala. They are posted on the CEF events webpage here.

III. Events

- AERA Brown lecture on “Disrupting Punitive Practices and Policies: Rac(e)ing Back to Teaching, Teacher Preparation, and Brown” on October 25 – CEF member the American Educational Research Association invites everyone to attend the 15th annual AERA Brown lecture featuring the important role of research in advancing understanding of equality and equity in education. H. Richard Milner IV will examine practices and policies that are implicitly or overtly designed to punish rather than support academic, social, cultural, and psychological development of Black, Brown, and low-income students. RSVP here for the lecture, which takes place on Thursday, October 25, at 6pm in the Ronald Reagan Building; buffet reception to follow.
- CEF’s upcoming schedule –
 - Friday, Oct. 19, 9-11am, at AFSCME, 1625 L St, NW, 1st floor conference room. Guest speaker: Bob Moran, Education Policy Director, Senate HELP Committee Republican staff.
 - Friday, Oct. 26, - No Friday meeting (this is a change from the original schedule)
 - Friday, Nov. 2 and Nov. 9 – No CEF meetings while Congress is in recess.
 - Friday, Nov. 16, 9-11am, at AFSCME, 1625 L St, NW, 1st floor conference room. Guest speaker: (tentative) Donni Turner, Senate Budget Committee Democratic staff.

My best,

Sheryl

CEF Nominations and Elections Procedures 2018 Elections

- 1) Eligible CEF members wishing to be considered for the offices of President, Vice President or Treasurer, or for one of the eight elected seats on the CEF Board of Directors – four of which come up for election this year -- shall complete the attached “Candidate Profile” and submit it to the Committee on Nominations and Elections via the CEF office, by Close of Business (COB) on Thursday, November 15, 2018.
- 2) Individuals serving on the Committee on Nominations and Elections may not file a candidate profile, nor may other individual employed by or representing an organization that is already represented by a member of the committee.
- 3) Individuals may file a Candidate Profile for more than one office. However, they may not appear on the final ballot for more than one office, so if they are recommended for one office but choose to pursue their candidacy for another, they will not be included on the slate for the original office.
- 4) Please send the candidate profile as a word attachment, or as a pdf file, to Claire Shanklin at CEF: Shanklin@cef.org. Candidates for election are free to campaign in any appropriate manner at any time during the nominations and elections process.
- 5) The Committee on Nominations and Elections will review the submitted candidate profiles and develop a slate to be presented to the CEF membership. The slate will include candidates for President, Vice President, Treasurer and the four elected seats on the CEF Board of Directors that are up for election (four Board members were elected last year to 2-year terms). The Nominations and Elections Committee will develop a slate that contains at least one candidate for President, Vice President, and Treasurer and no less than four candidates for the CEF Board of Directors to be elected by the CEF membership. The Committee on Nominations and Elections may solicit additional candidate profiles to ensure an appropriately balanced slate that is representative of the dues categories and education sectors within CEF’s membership.
- 6) Before the slate is presented to the full CEF membership, the Committee on Nominations and Elections shall contact those members who submitted profiles but who were not included on the slate to determine if they wish to maintain their candidacy and appear on the ballot. In compliance with the CEF bylaws, the recommended slate, all additional candidates, and the Candidate Profiles of all those up for election will be presented to the full membership by email on November 30, 2018, which is two weeks prior to the CEF Annual Meeting.

7) Elections will take place during the business session of the CEF Annual Meeting to be held on December 14, 2018.

- a) Each CEF member organization in good standing and also present at the annual meeting shall cast one vote. Proxy voting is not allowed.
- b) Any CEF member who participates in the annual meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar means of communication which allows for those attending the meeting to simultaneously hear each other and participate in the meeting shall be deemed present at the meeting.
- c) The order of elections will be: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and then the Board of Directors.
- d) Voting will be by secret ballot.
- e) If a candidate is unopposed for an office, the election may take place by voice vote if such a motion is approved by unanimous consent. Nominations from the floor are not permitted.
- f) To the extent that paper or secret ballots are used for voting, those who participate by means of a conference telephone or similar means of communication may cast such ballot electronically after their presence is confirmed during the meeting.
- g) Candidates for the offices of President, Vice President, and Treasurer shall be permitted to address attendees of the business meeting for three minutes. Officers shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast by secret ballot. If a runoff is required during any election for officers, the membership shall vote again on the two candidates who received the highest number of votes in the preceding vote.
- h) Candidates for the Board of Directors will be permitted to address attendees of the business meeting for 90 seconds. Candidates receiving the four highest vote totals in rank order shall be elected to the Board of Directors. If candidates are tied for the last seat, a runoff will be held to determine a candidate with the most votes.

8) The Officers and elected Board members take office at the end of the annual meeting.
