

Monday, October 25, 2021

I. Register for tomorrow's CEF Zoom briefing from 2:00-3:30pm ET

- CEF Hill briefing on Historic Underfunding of Education and Long-Term Needs on October 26 – Tomorrow's CEF Zoom webinar will highlight the impact of past underfunding of education and the on-going need for greater education investments – well-timed as Congress is considering transformative long-term education investments in the reconciliation bill and historic education funding increases in the fiscal year 2022 appropriations bill. We have 40 congressional education staffers already registered for the briefing, and encourage CEF members to attend, as well. You must RSVP here in advance to get the webinar link.

Briefing on the Historic Underfunding of Education and Existing, Long-term Needs

Tuesday, October 26, 2021

2 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. ET

Click here to register for the Zoom webinar

The briefing features a panel of experts who will provide a brief history of federal education funding and the historic investments that the President has proposed and discuss the range of needs along the education continuum from early education through elementary and secondary education and higher education.

Panelists:

- Loredana Valtierra, Special Assistant in the Office of Planning, Evaluation, and Policy Development at the US Department of Education
- Averi Pakulis, VP for Early Childhood and Public Health Policy, First Focus Campaign for Children
- Dr. Michael Rice, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Michigan Department of Education
- David Page, VP of Enrollment Management, Dillard University, New Orleans, LA