ⁱ The omnibus contains a 0.189% across-the board rescission to all programs in the Labor-HHS-Education Section (except for Pell grants). This cut applies to FY 12 appropriations. Because four programs (Title I, ESEA Title II, IDEA Part B Grants to States and Career and Technical Education State grants) include both FY 12 appropriations and advanced FY 13 appropriations contained in this bill, the 0.189% cut only applies to the FY 12 funding, not the advanced FY 13 appropriations.

ii The 0.189% cut applies to FY 12 advanced appropriations for these four programs provided in the FY 11 continuing resolution. That cut is included in the FY 11 total in this chart, since it affects funds for the 2011-12 school year.

iii The Senate bill includes $30 million for a new competitive grant program in FIE for literacy, of which $15 million is for school libraries.

iv The omnibus bill includes $28.654 million for a new competitive grant program in FIE for literacy, of which 50% is for school libraries.

v See #2 above.

vi Includes a 1% set-aside for a national competitive grant program for educator professional development.

vii Includes a 5% set-aside for a national competitive grant program for educator professional development.

viii Includes a 1.5% set-aside for a national competitive grant program for educator professional development.

ix Allows grants to both State Education Agencies and Local Education Agencies.

x Funded under the Fund for the Improvement for Education.

xi See #2 above.

xiii The President's budget proposed to eliminate the "summer Pell" (which was eliminated in the FY 11 Continuing Resolution) and the in-school interest exemption for graduate students (which was eliminated in the Budget Control Act) and use those savings, along with other savings from a restructuring of the Perkins loan program toward maintaining the $5,550 maximum Pell grant.

xiv The Senate bill eliminated the in-school interest exemption for the six-month grace period and used those savings for mandatory funding for Pell to maintain the $5,550 maximum award.

xv The Department of Education now estimates that the total Pell funding provided in the Senate bill (discretionary plus mandatory) will exceed the updated projected cost of the Pell grant program in FY 12 by $1.6 billion.

xvi The House bill makes numerous changes to the Higher Education Act that reduce eligibility for Pell grants:

- Eliminating eligibility for less-than half-time students
- Restricting eligibility to receive a minimum Pell grant
- Lowering the period of time for total Pell eligibility from 18 semesters to 12 semesters
- Changing the income protection allowances
- Lowering the family income that results in an automatic Zero Expected Family Contribution
- Changing the definition of untaxed income
- Eliminating students who are not high school graduates from receiving a Pell grant (the ability-to-benefit provision).

xvii The omnibus includes several changes to the Higher Education Act that reduce eligibility for Pell grants:

- Restricting eligibility to receive a minimum Pell grant

- Lowering the period of time for total Pell eligibility from 18 semesters to 12 semesters
 - Lowering the family income that results in an automatic Zero Expected Family Contribution from $30,000 to $23,000
 - Eliminating students who are not high school graduates from receiving a Pell grant (the ability-to-benefit provision).

In addition, the omnibus eliminates the in-school interest exemption for the six-month grace period for loans made on or after July 1, 2012 and before July 1, 2014 and uses those savings for mandatory funding for Pell toward maintaining the $5,550 maximum award.

^{xviii} Funding for the Institute for International Public Policy is eliminated.

^{xix} The omnibus consolidates the Javits Fellowship program within the Graduate Assistance in Areas of National Need Program.

^{xxi} This total is based on the table used in statement of managers. All other ED totals are from Department of Education tables and thus might not be totally comparable.
